11TH ANNUAL REAGAN DINNER RECAP

Steve Myers and Edmund Burke Society Members

The CCRC annual fundraiser was held Saturday, February 25, 2023, at the beautiful Tuscany Hall event venue. Conservatives gathered for an evening of networking and celebration, honoring former President Ronald Reagan. Guest speaker, Steve Myers, gave the keynote speech to nearly 100 attendees who enjoyed food and fellowship during the evening. Also in attendance were members of the Edmund Burke Society at UVA. The Edmund Burke Society is dedicated to studying and advancing conservative thought at their university. The group of young men was graciously hosted at the event by a generous benefactor. It was so exciting to meet these young men and see the future of the Republican Party at our gala event!

NEW CHAIR AND VICE-CHAIR ARE ELECTED

Lorraine Carter
Chair

Congratulations to Chairwoman, Lorraine Carter, and Vice-Chairwoman Susan Monaco who were voted in at the general meeting on February 23rd! Both women have served on the Executive Committee in other roles and are focused on helping the CCRC to grow membership, participate in more community events, and communicate many of the opportunities for conservatives to have a voice in their local politics and community.

Susan Monaco
Vice Chair

"We are both looking forward to continuing the mission of the CCRC by supporting and electing Republicans to office locally and beyond," said Lorraine Carter. "We must continue to focus on strengthening our resolve and commitment to our Republican Creed and work together to grow our party." Congratulations to Lorraine and Susan for their outstanding leadership and contributions to the Culpeper Republican Committee.

Looking for Leaders

Election season is upon us. At the November election, we'll be voting for many positions at the State, County and Town level. There are Board of Supervisor and School Board positions open also. If you have an interest in running, let us know, and we'll connect you with incumbents who can mentor you during your run, and we'll help guide you through the paperwork process.
